

PRIDE IN RESPECT

LGBTIQA+SB Specialist Support Service

WHO WE ARE

Pride in Respect: Specialist Support Service is a specialised service designed to support LGBTIQA+SB people impacted by family, domestic and sexual violence (FDSV).

Pride in Respect is delivered by Living Proud Inc. in partnership with Ruah Community Services. It recognises there are unique dynamics and forms of abuse experienced by LGBTIQA+SB people which require tailored and culturally safe responses.

WHO WE SUPPORT

LGBTIQA+SB people aged 18+ years and living in Western Australia who are impacted by family, domestic and/or sexual violence.

WHAT WE PROVIDE

Pride in Respect provides support, information, case management and referrals provided by qualified and skilled members of the LGBTIQA+SB community specialising in FDSV support. The Pride in Respect team are CRARMF trained, take a trauma-informed approach and also provide secondary consultation to services who may be working with LGBTIQA+SB individuals experiencing FDSV.

SERVICE INFORMATION

Pride in Respect is a free service.

The service operates Monday - Friday 9am - 5pm.

We welcome all inquiries.
